

THORBURN'S HR DIRECTOR ELECTED AS CHAIRPERSON OF SA SECURITY ASSOCIATION

Thorburn Security Solutions is proud to announce that Franz Verhufen, HR Director, has been elected as National Chairperson of the Security Association of South Africa (SASA).

This, together with the individual seat and Exco position Verhufen holds on the NBCPSS (National Bargaining Council for the Private Security Sector), bolsters Thorburn's standing in helping to define compliance, legislation, commercial and other labour legislation standards in the South African security industry.

With over 25 years' experience in security, with five years in operations and 20 in HR, as well as a proven track record in high-level industry wage negotiations, Verhufen is well placed as Chairperson of SASA. Not only is it the largest employer organisation in the security sector with approximately 48 Gold Member employer affiliates representing about 140,000 security officers, it is also the major employer organisation within the NBCPSS.

The NBCPSS is responsible for regulating, and writing into law, the terms, conditions and obligations of employers to ensure compliance within the sector.

Verhufen's experience includes:

- National Executive Council Member of SASA for over 10 years before being elected as National Chairperson in 2020
- Main Council Member at the NBCPSS since its inception in 2019
- Exco member of the NBCPSS since its inception in 2019
- National Executive on the Road Freight Association (RFA) – specifically representing the CIT Chamber (2017 – 2019)
- Main Council Member for the National Bargaining Council for the Road Freight and Logistics Council (NBCRFLI) (2017 – 2019)

Verhufen's position within SASA, together with Thorburn's Gold Member status, conveys the company's commitment to furthering the security sector's interest with all stakeholders, inclusive of private security companies, customers, employees, government institutions and the public at large.
